

Latino Adult Education Services

LAES has developed a series of immigrant issue instructional modules entitled "Tierra de Oportunidad" for orientation to our complex society.

Student Survey "On the Job Health and Safety"

Date: _____

Student Name _____

Teacher Name _____

1. How confident that you have all the information you need about:

	For each line, Please check the box that applies to you
	Not Very Confident	Somewhat Confident	Quite Confident	Have all the information
a. the incidence of injuries and types of injuries workers suffer in different kinds of work
b. deciding to work in a job which is more dangerous than others but better paid
c. whether people who complain about the psychological stresses of their jobs have a real health and safety concern or not
d. whether farm workers have the same rights as other workers if they're injured on the job or being taken to a job site
e. the benefits available to workers who are injured on the job Workers' Compensation
f. the benefits available to workers who are injured so badly that they can't work Disability Insurance

2. How confident are you that you can:

	For each line, Please check the box that applies to you
	Not Confident	Somewhat Confident	Very Confident	Don't need this
a. ask the questions you need to in order to identify risks entailed with a job
b. calculate the costs of medical treatment
c. estimate the losses from injuries
d. communicate with employers and supervisors about medical benefits provided on the job

e. communicate with employers and supervisors to help you get your medical bills, related to on-the-job injuries, paid
f. communicate with co-workers to identify job safety issues and how to address them

3. How important is for you to learn more about the following?

	For each line, Please check the box that applies to you
	Not Important	A little Important	Quite Important	Very Important
a. workers' rights to be trained for a new kind of work if they've been injured on the job and can't do the work they did in the past
b. the amount of money workers who are injured on the job should receive under different circumstances
c. the kind of help available to workers who are ill or injured so badly off the job that they can't work
d. who to contact to report dangerous working conditions
e. the invisible dangers of chemicals and pesticides on the job
f. talking with co-workers on the job about how to make your jobs safer
g. talking with supervisors on the job about how to make your job safer

4. What would you like to learn about "On-the-job Health and Safety"?

I would like to learn:

Authors: Ed Kissam and Holda Dorsey

A project of the California Department of Education, Youth, Adult and Alternative Educational Services Division, funded by contract #4213 of the Federal P.L. 100-297, Section 353 with California State University Institute and Hacienda LaPuente USD. However, the content does not necessarily reflect the position of that unit or of the U.S. Office of Education. 1997